SYFgoesOnline! 2022 Platforms
Art Form	Platform	Description
Art	Design Challenge	Students are invited to create a book cover that reflects their journey in the arts, based on the themes of Discovery, Creation or Connection. Shortlisted submissions will inspire the key visual for SYF 2023. Shortlisted students will attend a masterclass to develop their interests and skills in graphic design under the mentorship of professional designers.
Photography / Videography	Pixel Perfect	This year's Pixel Perfect theme 'Gratitude in Life' invites students to create a photo or video story to share their life experiences about people, places or moments they are grateful for.
Dance	DanceVerve 22	Ethnic meets modern and pop in this dance platform that invites students to submit solo or group videos featuring vibrantly new choreography in any of the categories below: • Creative Cultural Cool • UrbanContempDelight • Bring on da Funk! Students may showcase their dance talent in My Screendance! (dance film) or The Ultimate DV Dance Challenge.
Drama	The Young Playwright Presents	Students are invited to create an original monologue based on the theme, 'Singapore 2050 – Stories of a stronger Singapore'. The monologue should last between one to three minutes.
Music	Let's Jam Together!	Let's Jam Together! invites students to arrange and record their own cover of the song "Just Keep Singing". Students will be guided through the arranging and audio recording process on BandLab for Education, a free web-based digital audio workstation.
	SYFplaysON!	Student instrumentalists are invited to perform virtually with local SMSband to the song "Heart Strings" written by Jordan Wei and arranged by Andy Chong.

	The Youth Station Project	Students are invited to submit original songs written individually or in groups in the following 3 categories: • Primary • Lower Secondary • Open Professional musician mentors will be assigned to the top 20 songs in each category for students to hone their songwriting, music arranging, production and performing skills.